

COURSE OUTCOMES FOR B.A. (RC & SEC) IN ARABIC

B.A. 1st semester, Paper Code-1016, Paper Name: Contemporary Arab World-I

Students having Arabic as a subject of Regular Course (RC) in 1st semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Express the introduction of the Arab world.
2. Describe the political and economical developments of the Arab World.
3. Describe the famous councils and organizations of the Arab World, i.e. G.C.C., O.P.E.C. and Arab League.
4. Understand the education, language and culture of the Arab World.
5. Describe the Indo-Arab Commercial, Socio-Cultural, Political and Educational relations.
6. Understand the culture and civilization of different nations of the Arab World.

B.A. 2nd semester, Paper Code-2016, Paper Name: Contemporary Arab World-II

Students having Arabic as a subject of Regular Course (RC) in 2nd semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Express the introduction of the Arab World especially the kingdom of Saudi Arabia and United Arab Emirates (UAE).
2. Express the Geography and Economy of the kingdom of Saudi Arabia and United Arab Emirates.
3. Describe the Contemporary political developments of the kingdom of Saudi Arabia and United Arab Emirates.
4. Describe the Education and culture of the kingdom of Saudi Arabia and United Arab Emirates.
5. Understand the culture and civilization of different nations of the Arab World.

B.A. 3rd semester, Paper Code-3016, Paper Name: Contemporary Arab World-III

Students having Arabic as a subject of Regular Course (RC) in 3rd semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Express the introduction of Arab World especially the State of Kuwait and Syrian Arab Republic.
2. Express the Geography and Economy of the Kuwait and Syrian Arab Republic.
3. Describe the Contemporary political developments of Kuwait and Syrian Arab Republic.
4. Describe the Education and culture of Kuwait and Syrian Arab Republic.
5. Understand the culture and civilization of different nations of the Arab World.

B.A. 4th semester, Paper Code-4016, Paper Name:
Contemporary Arab World-IV

Students having Arabic as a subject of Regular Course (RC) in 4th semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Express the introduction of Arab World especially the Republic of Iraq & State of Qatar.
2. Express the Geography and Economy of the Republic of Iraq & State of Qatar.
3. Describe the Contemporary political developments of Iraq & State of Qatar.
4. Describe the Education and culture of Iraq & State of Qatar.
5. Understand the culture and civilization of different nations of the Arab World.

B.A. 5th semester, Paper Code-5016, Paper Name:
Arabic Prose, Poetry and History of Arabic
Literature-I.

Students having Arabic as a subject of Regular Course (RC) in 5th semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Read and understand analytically and critically the diverse range of Arabic texts.
2. Understand Arabic literary writings on the basis of careful close reading.
3. Understand those writings through past and current literary theory.
4. Understand that those writings are culturally constructed in time, place and tradition.
5. Understand how those writings inform the culture of different nations.

6. Participate appropriately through all of Arabic, English and Assamese spoken and written forms.
7. Express the History of Arabic Language & Literature.

B.A. 6th semester, Paper Code-6016, Paper
Name: Arabic Prose, Poetry and History of Arabic Literature-II.

Students having Arabic as a subject of Regular Course (RC) in 6th semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Read and understand analytically and critically the diverse range of Arabic texts.
2. Understand Arabic literary writings on the basis of careful close reading.
3. Understand those writings through past and current literary theory.
4. Understand that those writings are culturally constructed in time, place and tradition.

5. Understand how those writings inform the culture of different nations.
6. Participate appropriately through all of Arabic, English and Assamese spoken and written forms.
7. Express the History of Arabic Language & Literature.

B.A. 3rd semester, Paper Code-ARA-SE-3014, Paper
Name: Spoken Arabic-I

Students having Arabic as a subject of Skill Enhancement Course (SEC) in 3rd semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Write and Speak Arabic language fluently.
2. Read and understand analytically and critically the diverse range of Arabic texts.
3. Understand Arabic literary writings on the basis of careful close reading.

4. Understand those writings through past and current literary theory.
5. Understand how those writings inform the culture of different nations.
6. Participate appropriately through all of Arabic, English and Assamese spoken and written forms.
7. Analyse instances of the variety of literary forms i.e. the style, figurative language and convention.

B.A. 4th semester, Paper Code-ARA-SE-4014, Paper Name: Spoken Arabic-II

Students having Arabic as a subject of Skill Enhancement Course (SEC) in 4th semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Write and Speak Arabic language fluently.

2. Read and understand analytically and critically the diverse range of Arabic texts.
3. Understand Arabic literary writings on the basis of careful close reading.
4. Understand those writings through past and current literary theory.
5. Understand how those writings inform the culture of different nations.
6. Participate appropriately through all of Arabic, English and Assamese spoken and written forms.
7. Analyse instances of the variety of literary forms i.e. the style, figurative language and convention.

B.A. 5th semester, Paper Code-ARA-SE-6014, Paper Name: Spoken Arabic-IV

Students having Arabic as a subject of Skill Enhancement Course (SEC) in 5th semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Write and Speak Arabic language fluently.
2. Read and understand analytically and critically the diverse range of Arabic texts.
3. Understand Arabic literary writings on the basis of careful close reading.
4. Understand those writings through past and current literary theory.
5. Understand the basic grammar of Arabic language.
6. Participate appropriately through all of Arabic, English and Assamese spoken and written forms.
7. Read comprehension e.g, Arabic Newspapers & magazines.

B.A. 6th semester, Paper Code-ARA-SE-6014, Paper
Name: Spoken Arabic-IV

Students having Arabic as a subject of Skill Enhancement Course (SEC) in 6th semester in Bachelor of Arts degree will have demonstrated an ability to:

1. Write and Speak Arabic language fluently.
2. Read and understand analytically and critically the diverse range of Arabic texts.
3. Understand Arabic literary writings on the basis of careful close reading.
4. Understand those writings through past and current literary theory.
5. Understand the basic grammar of Arabic language.
6. Participate appropriately through all of Arabic, English and Assamese spoken and written forms.
7. Read comprehension e.g, Arabic Newspapers & magazines.